

of interest and interfere in elections. The same technology that allows facebook to trawl through your pictures to find the best ones for you to reminisce about at the end of the year, makes such nefariousness possible. Unlike other countries which have acted to secure their own interests over the last decade, India has chosen to wait and watch. This procrastination, perhaps unintended, paradoxically has presented us with an opportunity to act on the basis of what the internet is, and is becoming, rather than what it was
